

Lois Jeanette Annan

November 20, 1921 - June 21, 2011

Lois Jeanette Annan, 89, died Tuesday, June 21, 2011, at Thermopolis Rehabilitation and Care Center.

She was born in Mason City, Neb., on Nov. 20, 1921, the daughter of George Guy Davis and Vida DeNiece (Sphar) Davis. She attended elementary school in La-Grange and eighth through 12th grade at Pavillion, graduating with the Class of 1940.

Lois was a homemaker, having married Keith L. Annan in Riverton on April 24, 1940. She was of the Presbyterian faith and belonged to the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian churches in Riverton and Saratoga. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star Chapter 12 in Saratoga, and served as a 4-H leader in Dubois.

She cooked at the Dubois School District for many years and sold Avon and Sarah Coventry jewelry. Lois and Keith moved to Thermopolis five years ago.

Her family said Lois liked to crochet and knit, and played the piano in a family band, the Davis Band, for dances at Lysite, Pavillion and Dubois.

She is survived by her husband; sons, Larry (Judy) Annan of Thermopolis, Lonnie (Vickie) Annan of Berthoud, Colo., and Pat (Peggy) Annan of Broken Arrow, Okla.; daughters, Sandra (Teense) Willford of Saratoga, and Mickey (Charlie) Anderson of Riverton; 22 grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren, and several great great-grandchildren; brother, Bob (Kay) Davis of Knoxville, Tenn.; and sister, Barbara Davis of Lynden, Wash.

Lois was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Karen Hunt; three brothers; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday, June 24 at the Davis Funeral Home of Riverton. Burial followed at Mountain View Cemetery in Riverton. Peggy Annan and Teense Willford officiated.

Memorials may be made to the Help for Health Hospice Program or the American Heart Association, in care of the Davis Funeral Home, 2203 W. Main St., Riverton, WY 82501.
