

Alice May (Wurtz) Prosser

June 29, 1963 - December 21, 2011

Alice May (Wurtz) Prosser, 48, died Wednesday, Dec. 21, 2011, in a vehicle accident north of Shoshoni.

She was born June 29, 1963, in Seattle, Wash., the daughter of Donal Lee Wurtz and Jessie Gene (Hunt). She grew up in Seattle, during which time she often visited family in Thermopolis and Casper.

Alice later moved to Casper, lived at various times in Kirby and Thermopolis, and had been a Thermopolis resident since 1999.

On Aug. 17, 2008, she married Leon Eugene Prosser at Hot Springs State Park in Thermopolis.

She worked as an independent circulation contractor for the Casper Star-Tribune for three years. Prior to that, she had been the Kwik Mart store manager in Thermopolis for seven years.

Alice's family said that in the past she enjoyed crocheting blankets and her pit bull dogs. She loved her family and will be missed by all of them, including nephews Joshua Hunt, Stan Burchett, Danon Weaver, Levi Tanner, and Paul, Phillip and Patrick Wurtz; nieces, Christina Meier, Sheridan Donald, Shylow Barber and Echo Burchett; and grandchildren, Hayley, Brandon and Liberty.

Survivors include her father, of Midwest; husband, of Thermopolis; sons, Andrew Tanner of Seattle, Wash., and Christopher Prosser of Thermopolis, who is attending the University of Wyoming in Laramie; daughter, Suzzanna Tanner of Thermopolis; brother, Karl and wife Jackie Wurtz; and sisters, Lelia Burchett of Thermopolis and Katherina R. Tanner of Texas; 11 nieces and nephews; three grandchildren; and numerous aunts and uncles.

She was preceded in death by her mother; and a brother, Donal Hunt.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 4 at the Thermopolis VFW. Cremation has taken place.
